batteries for storing excess energy generated from renewable sources such as solar or ...

It's not too common though. The two most common formulations are: I get off work at 5. and I get off of work at 5. At least where I live, "get off from" is used, but not as ...

"The company wants to dispose off the equipment." Is this sentence correct. I am confused whether it is dispose of or dispose off as I see a lot of sentences that use dispose off.

Your choices (get off work, finish work, leave work) will all work fine finishing the question about a normal working day. I don't see much difference in formality, if any.
